DEFINITIONS

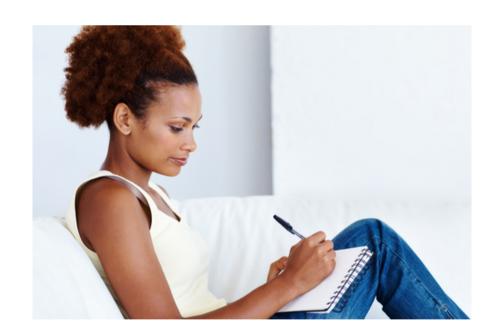

Question

missionary (n): a person who leaves home to teach others about their church or to help the poor example: My brother was a missionary for two years in Japan.

PASSAGE

A journal is a book a person writes in about his/her life. Marissa wrote this in her journal last week.

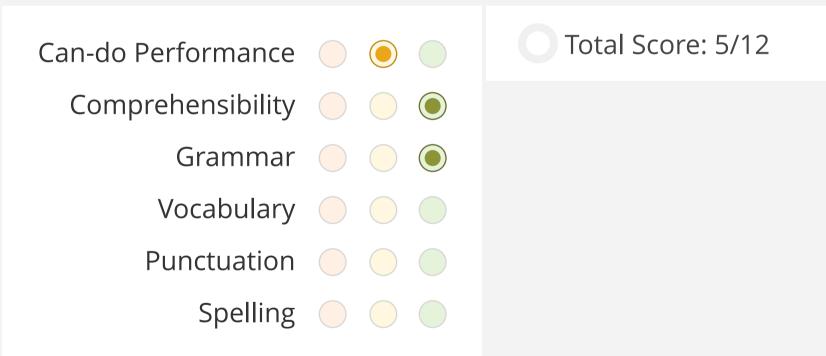

Yesterday at church Brother and Sister Schmidt spoke. They were missionaries in an island nation. They talked about their experiences. They worked with the schools. They worked to help the children. They helped to get pencils and paper for the children. Without paper and pencils, the children could not go to school.
